

International Crisis Management Conference

Liepāja, October 2024

Invitation Letter

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is with great pleasure to invite you and your colleagues to the "International Crisis Management Conference – how to reach stakeholders" on behalf of the Resilient Cities project funded by the European Commission's CERV programme.

The Conference will be held from 1st to 3rd of October, 2024 in the concert hall "Great Amber" in Liepāja, Latvia.

The theme of the conference has fundamental importance in to public safety, especially considering the current geopolitical situation in the world. The theme of the conference includes reaching the stakeholders, which will be examined both from practical tasks, stories of experience, recommendations of crisis communication professionals, and also during the study visits.

Despite this program, you are welcome to present on any other important topic to share your knowledge with our group.

Thus, we would be very pleased if you could enrich our meeting with your presence and a presentation.

For a successful organization, we would like to ask you kindly to respond by 30th of August by filling out the registration form:

<https://forms.gle/5X8DzU1bWiqWfzy58>

As the participants number is limited, you will receive the confirmation of your approved participation with practical information no later 6th September.

Together with our team we are looking forward to welcome you in Liepāja,

Kaspars Vārpiņš

Chairman of Union of the Baltic Cities Safe Cities Commission
Deputy Chief of Liepāja Municipal Police
